

DEATH SENTENCE

For Powers—Prisoner Heard the Verdict Apparently Unmoved.

APPEAL HAS BEEN GRANTED.

At Georgetown, Ky., on Aug. 20th the Powers trial came to an end. A special from that place of the above date says:

"Caleb Powers has been found guilty of conspiracy in the assassination of Gov. Goebel and the jury has fixed his punishment at death. The report of the jury was made to the court at 11:20 o'clock this morning after four hours and twenty minutes consideration of the case.

The report of the jury was anxiously awaited by dozens of persons who followed the trial closely. In the crowd in the court room were many women. At 11:05 o'clock this morning the jurors sent out for Judge Robbins and notified him that they were ready to report to the court their verdict.

Jailer Finley was dispatched to the county jail to bring the prisoner into court. He arrived with him at 11:17 o'clock and the court room quickly filled with people. The verdict was reported by the clerk, as follows: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty, and fix his punishment at death."

The jurors are: Albert Mitchell, George W. Estes, Clay Estes, J. H. Wilson, George W. Wyatt, Dennis Hanley, J. C. Booth, W. Rion, Sr., Ed. H. Ingles, J. T. Hill, Ed. V. Loyson, S. Perry Rice.

When the verdict was read the most intense silence prevailed. The jury was polled and each man declared the verdict to be his verdict.

POWERS WAS COOL.

Powers sat unmoved while his attorney asked time to make a motion for a new trial.

Mr. Arthur Goebel broke down from the strain on hearing of the verdict of guilty. The jurors decline to state what occurred in the jury room.

MOTION OVERRULED.

Special Judge Robbins this afternoon overruled the motion for granting a new trial for Powers and passed sentence of death upon him. After the declaration of the prisoner: "I am not guilty, Judge," the court fixed November 25 next as the day for the execution. Powers was immediately removed to the Scott county jail to be held there pending the appeal of the case. Powers refused to say anything after the rendition of the verdict saying he had said all he cared to in the speech to the jury.

The trial just closed was the third in which Powers was subjected. On the first trial he was given life imprisonment. The case was taken to the court of appeals, and was reversed. The verdict in the second trial was also life imprisonment. The court of appeals again came to Powers' rescue by reversing the lower court and granting him a new trial.

APPEAL GRANTED.

Georgetown, August 30.—An appeal has been granted Powers and the defense given until the 8th day of the October term of the Scott circuit court to file a bill of exceptions.

This suspends the sentence pending a decision of the appeal.

King Peter of Serbia has desired that the ownership on foreign papers shall be removed—an innovation which has made a good impression.

LONDON LETTER.

The Modern Steamer Gown. Trim, Neat and Smart—What Not to Wear.

Never has the importance of a suitable and comfortable steamer outfit been so forcibly borne in upon me, and never have I witnessed the display of such lack of judgement in selecting it, as among the inexperienced of my sister voyagers on my last week's trip across the Atlantic.

If you have not yet encountered the atmospheric conditions imposed by ocean travel and contemplate a trip Europeanward, pray profit by her mistakes.

In these times, when there is such an embarrassment of riches in materials and models for all climates, all conditions, all modes of life, to be unsuitably dressed at sea is more than a misdemeanor—it should rank as a crime. Absence of dress allowance cannot be offered as an excuse, for simplicity is within the reach of all.

It is of course, usual for women to wear pretty hand costumes of more or less fancifulness when boarding the steamer, but do not think of wearing a long gown after the first meal, with ruffles and flounces for the wind to blow about, rather dampness and discoloration about the hem, and experience the mortification of appearing in woe-begone attire, made conspicuous by the trim costume of the up-to-date girl accustomed to travel.

Neither is it necessary to choose a gown suitable only for shipboard wear, for, though sail or touches are sometimes seen, anything beyond just a hint at sailor costume is not good in these days when travel has become too every day an event to be treated too consciously.

It is quite possible, by the exercise of good judgement, to compromise and avoid both mistakes. Skirts that actually clear the ground by at least two inches all around are without doubt the most serviceable for shipboard wear, and, made by a good tailor, of suitable quality of serge, homespun, or preferably Cravenette, which the salt-laden air does not affect, can be put in excellent condition after the voyage by a tailor pressing, and become your most important wardrobe item, and suitable for more frequent wear than all your other frocks put together.

While all forms of jackets found with the severe walking suit are appropriate for the ocean trip, the loosely fitting Norfolk jacket with its easy comfortable aspect, is much affected for sea wear.

But do not be deluded into thinking that, because your jacket is loose any sort of corset will do at sea, for never is the up-to-date stunning figure, given by the C-B-A la spirite corset more noticeable than when a woman is walking on deck buffeted by a stiff sea wind.

Simple tailor-made shirt waists in heavy mercerized cotton, flannel, and the serviceable Mohair Secilian which comes in various colorings and styles are used, and linen collars commend themselves, because of their spruce freshness.

Any style of tailor hat, provided it is small or of medium size and adorned with severe close trimming may be selected.

With your golf cap, natty Forsythe gloves, a thick loose veil for blustery days, and a pretty waist of plain de crepe, which in white or cream bears washing, for dinner wear or "concert night" you will not only be comfortably equipped, but always present a trim, neat, and appealing appearance.

MARTIN MARRE.

COL. SMITH

Will Resign After Fifteen Years Command of Third Regiment.

COL. HENRY MAY SUCCEED HIM.

A special from Bowling Green to the Courier-Journal says:

Col. T. J. Smith, commanding the Third regiment, K. S. G., and Maj. Ed. Watt, commanding the First battalion of the regiment, both of this city, left today on orders from Adj. Gen. David R. Murray to meet in conference tonight at Frankfort regarding the military school of instruction to be held next month at West Point. They were joined here by Lieut. Col. Jonett Henry, of Hopkinsville.

It is stated here tonight that at this conference Col. Smith will tender his resignation as commanding officer of the Third regiment so that his successor may be elected before his regiment goes into camp. Col. Smith's reason for retiring from the State Guard service after so long a time is his pressing duties as bank president, together with his other business interests.

In addition he is by no means in the best of health and would be incapable of doing camp duty on account of a bad foot. He has been in the State Guard service for 25 years. From Quartermaster of the local company he was made Captain, then Lieutenant Colonel and then Colonel. He has been the commanding officer of the regiment for 15 years. He was in the Spanish-American war and is very popular with the "boys." He will be prevailed upon to retain his present position, but will hardly do so. In the event his resignation is accepted Col. Jonett Henry, of Hopkinsville, Mayor of that city, will probably be elected Colonel without opposition, and Maj. E. H. Watt, of this city, will become Lieutenant Colonel.

The local military company was instructed to hold an election tonight to select a Captain to succeed R. C. P. Thomas, resigned, and to elect a First Lieutenant. Just before the company assembled a telegram was received from Frankfort ordering the election postponed until Saturday night. City Prosecuting Attorney H. H. Denhardt, now First Lieutenant of Company A, has no opposition for the captaincy. There are several candidates for Lieutenant.

A movement is on foot to establish another military company here. There are already 50 signers.

Dread Disease Becoming an Epidemic.

A special from Bowling Green to the American says:

The scarlet fever epidemic which has prevailed in this city and county for several weeks, is now reaching an alarming stage and everywhere can be seen the red flags. The health board is working to get the disease under control, but thus far has been unsuccessful.

County Teachers In

Session at Hopkinsville.

The county teachers convened at Hopkinsville Monday and will remain in session throughout the week. There were eighty teachers present at the opening services, and many more have arrived since. Prof. Charles Evans, of Marion, is conducting the institute. Mrs. Wm. E. Gray was elected secretary and John Keith McCandless, county superintendent, delivered an address.

RAILROAD ADVERTISING.

Has Done Much to Reveal the Beauties of Travel in America.

When the passenger departments of the railroads began to advertise the advantages of their respective lines and the beauties and points of interest along the right of way, the conservatives stood aghast at the innovation, says the Toledo Times. It was freely predicted that they would get tired of wasting their money or that their employers would call them down and refuse to countenance such expenditures. Yet how different has been the outcome. The pioneers in the business have been followed by imitators and competitors, until some of the most attractive and interesting and instructive advertising of the day is done by the railroads. It is, of course, impossible to know the full extent of the influence of this advertising, but the result has been to immensely stimulate travel. We Americans are just learning to appreciate leisure and to know that one doesn't have to go a thousand miles from home to get genuine recreation and an education that is a pleasure to acquire.

The theory that everything worth seeing is in Europe has been exploded and the railroads, with their persistent, artistic and well constructed advertising have lighted the fuse that led to the explosion. Everyone with a spark of ambition desires to see surroundings different from his own. He wants to travel. But he dreads going into strange scenes and conditions.

WORTH A MILLION.

Auburn, Ky. Man Has a Fortune Coming in England.

A special from Bowling Green to the American says: A. H. Aull, a druggist of Auburn, Ky., today received information that he would soon come into an estate approximately valued at $1,000,000.

Mr. Aull has already spent a small fortune trying to clear the title which would entitle him to the estate. On one occasion he employed a New York lawyer to go to London to look into the matter. The attorney never returned, and it is believed he either met with foul play or was bought off by the person now holding the estate.

Paul Cooke, a young attorney of New York, whose home was formerly in this city, left this morning for London with the necessary proof to gain possession of the estate.

A COLLEGE MAN STORY.

A Pathetic Account of the Treatment by Kansas Farmers.

One of the Eastern college men writes a pathetic account of the treatment accorded to his party by the Kans as farmers: "After sitting around a country hotel for five days, we were offered employment in filling the header box, a machine which cuts the corn cobs from the stalks." Lord Dundreary, who wanted to see the cow which gave the buttermilk, the Chicago girl who commiserated the cold job of the farmer in cutting his winter wheat, the Cincinnati agriculturist who wanted some tobacco seed, part plug and part fire-cut—all these must go to the barn and unblock when the New Yorker comes driving down the pike with that header box which cuts the corn cobs from the stalks."—Kansas City Star.

EARLINGTON

School Children Will Entertain the Teachers' Institute at Madisonville Monday.

INTERESTING PROGRAM ARRANGED.

By request of the County Superintendent, Miss Sallie R. Brown, the school children of this place, under the direction of our popular principal, Miss Minnie Bourland, will entertain the teachers at an evening session on Monday, Sept. 7th, at the Tabernacle.

Beside several musical numbers, they will present the popular "Jumping Jack" drill and will illustrate the "Owl and Pussycat Nonsense Song" in costume. These, it will be remembered by Earlington people, were given with great success at the close of our recent school term.

Following these exercises Prof. Chapman, Superintendent-elect of the Madisonville graded school, will deliver a lecture on some educational theme.

FAITHLESS SPOUSE.

Leaves Family at Calhoun to Go West. But Went to Cincinnati and Joined His Former Assistant.

If Mr. H. O. Schroeter, lately of Calhoun, can be located he will, in all probability, be confronted with the charge of bigamy. He left his wife and family at Calhoun last week, telling them to look after his photograph gallery while he went to Colorado and sought a new location. He promised when he got well established in the West that he would send for his family.

Mr. Schroeter bade his wife and children a fond farewell the first part of last week and came to Owensboro, en route, as he said, to Colorado. Only a day or so after he left a letter came addressed to him bearing a Cincinnati postmark. The address was in the handwriting of a woman, and the wife at once became suspicious. Her grounds were well founded, for when she opened the letter and read the contents it proved to be from a Miss Martin, who was formerly in her employ, as a house girl.

Unless Schroeter has proved false to Miss Martin he has lied to his wife and has gone to Cincinnati to join the former house girl and marry her.

The chagrined wife at once consulted an attorney over her troubles. He advised her to swear out an attachment for alimony against the property of her husband. His lawful wife will eventually sue for a divorce.

Schroeter has conducted a floating photograph gallery on Green river for the last seven years. He worked at his vocation at Livermore and Calhoun. He has two sons nearly grown. His wife is about forty years of age and is an unusually attractive woman. They were always highly thought of at Calhoun and Livermore.

Miss Martin was employed by them about a year ago. She, too, is a very pretty woman. She is about twenty-three years of age.

Attorney Joe Miller, of Calhoun, who has been engaged by Mrs. Schroeter, was in the city Monday. He said the attachment papers would be issued by the county judge of McLean county Monday afternoon.—Owensboro Messenger.

The only American exhibit at the Osaka (Japan) exposition is that of Osage, whose legislature voted $4,000 for the purpose.

A GREAT INVENTION.

L. & N. Engineer Has Solved the Problem of Sending the Whistle With His Hand on the Throttle.

Engineer Harry Lammers, who runs the day trains, has about completed a couple of inventions which will work wonders in the railway world and put many thousand dollars in his pockets. Those familiar with a railroad engine know it requires the use of the driver's right hand and arm to operate the whistle. As he needs the hands for several other purposes this often proves troublesome, so Lammers put his brain to work to remedy the trouble. The device consists of a set of rods which run from the whistle valve down through the cab to the engineer's foot rest. Here is made a neat device which, by pressing either foot, the whistle valve is opened thereby doing away with the hand arrangement and leaving that free to use on his air, throttle, or for any other purpose. But his best scheme is this: Railroad men know how stock, and people too, remain on the track until the engine is almost on them. Mr. Lammers has invented a plan which will work wonders in this line. A pipe running from the boiler to the front of the engine is so arranged that by opening a valve a stream of steam is thrown fully 50 feet straight in front of the locomotive. Should a man or stock stand on the track, this valve can be quickly opened and the hot steam thrown in such a great volume that he will move off and move quickly, too. This arrangement will save many lives, and work wonders on the old bony horses and cattle which are placed on the right of way to be killed, the owner securing the much sought for opportunity of suing the company, a "pastime" so much indulged in by some people who seem to think railroad companies owe them a living.—Lancaster Record.

Mead County Man Owns Ginseng Farm.

Coon Den is the largest ginseng garden in the State, owned and operated by Mr. Buck Bewley. He began propagating the plant nine years ago from a few plants he found in the neighboring forests. He now sufficient to cover at least one half an acre, which will produce this year, enough seed to transplant one acre with the plants he has already growing. Mr. B says he will gather at least 100,000 seeds from his present crop. He has an offer of $80 a pound for them, but will not sell them, as he will plant them himself, believing that with one acre he can make more money than crops can produce on 100 acres. His nine year old plants are beauties, and bear from 125 to 200 seeds each. There are 8,000 seeds in one pound, and 175,000 plants will grow on an acre.—Elizabethtown News.

Hopkins County Damage Suits.

Glenn's Graphic, of Madisonville, deplores the great number of damage suits filed in the Hopkins county Circuit Court docket against corporations of the county for trial at the September term of court. It says there are 38 cases in which the total amount of damages foots up the enormous sum of $200,000.

Of these suits 14 are against the L. & N. railroad, 8 against the I. C. and the remaining 19 are against the various coal companies operating mines in the county.

People who formerly lived on Bald Knob would hardly know the place now it has undergone such wonderful changes in the past few months. In addition the handsome dwelling being erected by Forbes & Bro. contractors of Hopkinsville, for P. M. Moore. A stone wall has been built across a narrow valley, a road graded from the reading room to the top of the hill, and where there was scarcely room for a foot path at one time a broad driveway has been constructed. When this dwelling is completed it will be one of the most convenient homes in the city.

While returning from Madisonville last week we came upon two men near the top of Bald Knob with their horses stalled. The wagon was heavily loaded and the horses pulled at it until their reins stood out like whip cords but they were unable to move the load. Then the two humiliated brutes got out of the wagon and whipped and belabored the poor horses unmercifully. As we watched the two legged brutes beating the four legged ones we felt quite sure that Mr. Ingersoll was mistaken in regard to the non-existence of a certain place. There is only one place where such men can be adequately punished.

Some of the residents on Farren avenue are suffering from an epidemic of stray cats. Every little while some enterprising mother cat, followed by six or seven weak eyed offspring, take up a residence in the coal house or cellar, as the case may be, and it takes a great deal of persuasion to induce them to vacate. Only the other night we counted nine cats and a homeless dog in the back yard of a neighbor giving a concert, which was frequently interrupted by fragments of flying brick bats and chunks of profanity. Steps should be taken by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to establish a home for the orphan cats of Earlington.

A protracted meeting will begin in Hecla Presbyterian church Saturday, Sept. 12, at 7:30 p. m. Rev. George Fisher Bell, of Greenville, will assist the pastor, Rev. G. E. Thompson, of Elkton. In this series of meetings, Earlington people are cordially invited to attend these services.

Advice Today for Men of Tomorrow.

Kansas City World, reading the signs of present times, says: "The young man who drinks strong liquor is like the commander of a fortified city who deliberately admits a known enemy within the walls. Drink is more hostile and more deadly than an army. It has sent more men to destruction and death than have all the armies of the world. There is nothing in it. You cannot gain by it; you may lose everything—health, position, reputation, self-respect, manhood, soul. The first drink admits a demon that every successive drink strengthens, until some day it may be strong enough to dominate and shut its ravens appetite with your brain and blood.

"Don't deceive yourself about your strength. You know nothing about that until the test comes, and then it is too late. You may never be sure you have the strength to resist until you have asserted that strength by resistance. To resist once, or twice, or a dozen times, does not strengthen to resist all ways. It can be proved only by constant and unflinching resistance. Any man can resist sometimes. The only man who can have absolute confidence in his power to resist is he who never drinks at all. If you have the strength use it. Assert it now. One drink more is too much. Be strong right now. It is your best chance.

"Strong young man! If you can today mock at the assertion that one drink is too much, some day you may think the same of ten drinks, and later of twenty. And when that day comes the strength that could not resist one drink, before appetite was formed, will be but as a straw in a whirlwind. If you have not the strength and sense to quit drinking right now, when will you have it? Will continued yielding give you added sense, or better sense? When the ravens nerves of a disordered stomach and the flaccid tissues of a softening brain demand whisky, will you, who could not resist when strength and sense were whole and craving were unknown—will you be better able to resist it then?

"It is not an abstruse question of piety, or ethics, or morality; it is a simple question of common sense and health. One does not become drunk in the gutter to be injured by whiskey. It is poison even in small quantities.

"When impure, as most of the commercial whiskey is, it full of unknown dangers, and it is more dangerous still. It is sometimes given to pups to stunt their growth and turn them into 'freaks.' The young man hoping for the highest possible mental and physical development should think seriously of this when tempted to put himself in the place of the pup.

"Young man, don't drink! Refuse the first drink, or, if you have taken that and more, assert your strength now and refuse to take another, and the spirits of all dearest to you on earth or in heaven will lean and listen and smile. Take it, and devils will laugh and leer and mock."

Prosperity

In these days when the chief "religion" in politics, commerce and religion is "prosperity," it may be well to call attention to the road to prosperity planned and pointed out by the world's Architect.

One man for the sake of prosperity consents to sell whiskey; another, though a professed son of God, consents to legalize and protect the sale, knowing that in the United States alone, it sends one man to hell every five minutes day and night, and as often trips one more boy to take the drunkard's place and end in the same woeful place; the only consent necessary being a vote for a license party.

The world (and our Lord as well) decide how much we believe in Bible promises by how much we act upon them. Prayers and professions are not substitutes for action for doing.

The man who profess to believe the following texts, but does not act upon them enough to make the conditions attached, evidently is not up to the required standard of faith and works.

There is no one, not even the Republican party, that promises prosperity so surely and makes the conditions so honorable as does the author of the texts below.

or or an angel from above, counts as much for legalizing and protecting the liquor traffic as the vote of the "bun" or the liquor seller himself. We suggest that church members at least should try the plan of fasting properly outlined in the following texts. It seeks the relief of the bound, burdened and oppressed, and is the opposite of that plan which legalizes, protects and shares profits in that which is a "stumbling block, and occasion to fall," and the ruin, soul and body, of hundreds of thousands of our fellowmen.

Memorial.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Davis Wednesday, Aug. 26, 1903, and stole from them their little daughter, Helen Kathleen. Her remains were interred at Flat Creek. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. T. H. Smith. Fond parents, friends and physician had long watched over the little sufferer, but all in vain; what might have been we can only imagine.

Ah, well; for us all some sweet hope has been buried.

Deeply hurt from all human eyes, and in the hereafter angels may roll the stone from its grave away. It would be better for us if we could accept life with its sorrows and griefs as we meet it, but this is foreign to our nature. Life has many dark clouds to dull its brightness but they only cause us to appreciate the sunshine all the more when it comes.

There is no flock, however watched and tended.

But one dead lamb is there;

There is no firebrand, however defended,
But has one vacant chair.

Not Too "Spooky."

Poets do not usually err through reticence; in fact, some of the most renowned poets are accused of turning their emotions too readily into fame and hard cash, and still others are suspected of celebrating their lady loves for reasons less of love than of literature and lucre. Even the life-long unrequited attachment of Petrarch to Laura, it is occasionally insinuated, cost him more ink than heartache, after all.

With Whittier, gentle, genuine, dignified and incapable of playing at passion, it was far otherwise. In all his poems there is to be found but one allusion to his only grown-up love affair; and a recently published volume of Lucy Larcom shows that he even had his doubts about the child poem "In School Days," so well-known, so well-loved, and so often recited, in which he sings the dying girl of his boyhood.

Dear Friend Lucy, I could not make verses for the pictures, but I send thee herewith a bit, which I am sure is childish, if not childlike. Be honest with it, and if it seems to you a spoonful for a grave Quaker like myself, don't compromise by printing it. When I got a proof I may see something to mend or mar. Thine truly, J. G. W.

Fortunately, the poem was neither marred nor mended; Miss Larcom did not consider it as too spooky; and we have preserved in verse the incident of the boyish poet and the little friend, sweet eleven-year-old Lydia Ayres, who was sorry that she split the word that sent her away from him to the head of the class—"Because, you see, I love you!"

The manuscript of this poem and the letter with it were sold the other day for five hundred and forty dollars. This money, with that brought by the sale of other Whittier manuscripts, ten thousand dollars in all, is to be used in maintaining the Whittier homestead, scene of "Snow-Bound" and birthplace of the poet—Yonkers, Connecticut.

Free Bed for Cats.

In an animal hospital in Philadelphia there is a free bed for cats, endowed by a servant, Ruth Darling, who died in that city some years ago. She had always liked animals and the Philadelphia Record says that during her last illness she said to her employer:

"I have a little money saved, sir. I should like to do something with it for cats. Cats have a cruel, hard life. I'd like to found a bed in a hospital for them, so that when the miserable creatures are sick they can be taken care of."

"Well, Ruth, the idea is a good one," said the woman's employer, "but such a bed would cost money."

"I know it, sir, and I've got the money," she returned. "Look, sir!" and the dying woman took from under her pillow a bag of money.

The book showed to her credit a sum more than sufficient for the establishment of the bed. And accordingly there is now in the Maher

Animal Hospital a commodious iron cage with the inscription, "The Ruth Darling Bed" on it in gold letters.

Like a popular club, this bed has always a waiting list, a long line of wretched and suffering cats waiting to be treated without charge. Last year fifty-six cats were cared for.

WHY IS IT?

BLUR G. HARD.

Why is it that we work for most, We never can attain. And when we yearn for sunshine We always get a rain?

Why is it most pleasant things Are not exactly right, And that we should not see, Is ever in our sight?

Why is it we see our neighbor's faults Much plainer than our own, Tho' like huge mountains Our's steadily have grown?

Why is it we give good advice On morals, laws and health, And never care to use it To benefit our self?

Why is it we stay away from church On account of a threatening cloud, When we wade through rain to the opera?

Why is it we bet on the races, And otherwise play the fool, And for the good of the Sunday school?

There's something radically wrong With the way things are going today. If we'd turn squarely around, I think we'd find it would pay.

Avoid serious results of kidney or bladder disorder by taking Foley's Kidney Cure.

MILKING TIME.
As It Is Pictured by the City Artist and as It Really Is.
BLUR G. HARD.

Every evening, sure as fate, The cows come to the back lot gate, Where they bawl and impatiently wait.

For milking time—Shortellow. Somewhere adown the dim vistas of the long gone past I have seen an elaborate chromo portraying a shady lane, a lot of draw bars, all down but the two last, three or four variegated cows and a handsome milk maiden with her sleeves tucked up revealing the milky whiteness of her alabaster arms to the elbow.

In the picture the sun was slowly and gracefully gliding adown the crimson west, bathing the tops of the vernal trees in a flood of shimmering gold as it has on several previous occasions. To gaze on this picture one would have been immediately convinced that milking was one of the greatest pleasures human flesh is heir to. Alas! How different it is in real life. To one who has never attempted to yank the lactical fluid from a fractious bovine this picture is a delusion and a snare. Milking time in Kentucky is something like the following:

An anxious, rawboned cow comes up to the back gate about 3 o'clock p. m. and stands there for three hours with her pensive head thrust through an opening and pours forth a never ceasing flood of melody until she causes unkind remarks from the neighbors or is fed and milked. When milking time actually arrives and the food is being prepared the impulsive cow spitefully attempts to remove an enterprising fly that is locating a claim on her spinal column and in the rebound her horn inflicts a long, irregular mark somewhere in the neighborhood of the milkers fifth rib. This, however, is nothing to compare with the agony one has to undergo during the painful operation of milking. The mental strain of milking an uncertain cow is exhaustive in the extreme. While one is pensively sitting on a three legged stool, squeezing the liquid whiteness in a pail and reciting William Cullen Bryant's Thanatopsis, it is disgusting in the extreme to have a refractory cow swish vigorously at a fly and wrap three lengths of her tail around one's head, with the damp brashy part resting on the pale dome of thought, or suddenly, without previous warning raise her right hind foot and kick the milk pail athwart the zodiac scattering the contents over one's best pants and standing collar. Experiences of this kind cause one to become morose and bitter toward his fellow man and many a man has flitted an early grave, simply and solely because he preferred death to milking an irresponsible brindle bovine all his life. The Alameda Association of Hard Working Housewives should take this matter under serious consideration and see if something cannot be done to alleviate the sufferings of male milkmen even though they had to perform this part of the household duties themselves.

Never Did.

The editor of an exchange being asked if he ever saw a bald-headed woman, replied in the following vein: "No, we never did; nor did we ever see a woman walking around town in her shirt sleeves with a cigar in her teeth, and running in every saloon she saw. We have never seen a woman go fishing with a bottle in her pocket, sit on the damp ground all day and come home drunk at night. Nor have we ever seen a woman yank off her coat and say she could lick any man in town. God bless her, she's not built that way."

Virginia's Dismal Swamp.

Progress is an inconceivable and obliterated "old landmarks" without mercy, says the Richmond Virginian. The Dismal Swamp of Virginia is one of our natural curiosities, and the Lake of the Dismal Swamp has been the subject of song. But the water from the lake has been largely drawn off for commercial purposes, and now we are told that the Ohio capitalists and farmers who recently purchased 20,000 acres of land in the heart of the Swamp are rapidly cutting the timbers away and draining the lands and putting them in arable condition. The Dismal Swamp is doomed. It will not be many years before the morass which from time immemorial has been the home of bear and deer and other wild animals, will be the home of prosperous settlers. We old fogies necessarily feel a sense of sorrow in the passing of the Dismal Swamp. But there is no sentiment in progress.

CHEAP LANDS

For Homeseekers and Colonies.

The country along the Cotton Belt Route in Southeast Missouri, Arkansas, Northwest Louisiana and Texas offers the greatest opportunities for Homeseekers. Mild climate, good water, cheap building materials, abundance of fuel, and soil that will often in a single season yield enough to pay for the ground. Land can be bought as cheap as $2.50 an acre, prairie land at $4 and $5 per acre up, bottom land at $5 and $6 per acre up. Improvements or partially cleared land at $10 and $15 per acre up. Some fine propositions for colonies—tracts of 2,000 to 50,000 acres for $1.00 per acre—big money in this for a good organizer. Fruit and truck lands in the famous peach and tomato belt of Texas at $10 to $20 per acre up. Write us for information about cheap rates, excursion rates, and literature descriptive of this great country and let us help you find a home that will cost you no more than the rent you pay every year. ## A NEW DISEASE MENACING CUBA

A Malady That Baffles the Best Medical Skill to be Found In the Island.

IS MORE SWIFT AND DEADLY THAN THE BUBONIC PLAGUE.

It Presents the Worst Symptoms of Yellow Fever, Black Fever and Spotted Fever, and Literally Burns Out the Lives of Its Tortured Victims.

New York, Sept. 2.—Menaced by a disease which has baffled the best medical skill of the island, the health department officials of Cuba have appealed to the authorities of Columbia university and Jefferson Medical college of Philadelphia for aid in determining the nature of the disease. The most eminent pathologists and bacteriologists of those institutions are working, says the World, and public health department of the United States government, in an effort to determine the nature of the disease. All details of the investigation are refused.

The disease in many of its symptoms resembles bubonic plague, but it is said to be more swift in its progress and more deadly in its effects.

It first appeared some months ago in the isolated town of Daiquiri, province of Santiago. Men employed in the iron mines in that locality were affected. The disease did not yield to treatment, and the mortality was greater than in yellow fever or any kindred disease.

The inhabitants became panic-stricken, and an American steam company, with large interests there, took up the matter. References to the New York and Philadelphia experts followed.

The description of the disease furnished by the Cuban physicians shows that it presents the worst symptoms of yellow fever, black fever and spotted fever. The patient is usually dead, in a few hours after first complaining of illness, and turns a bright yellow after death. It is in the death that the disease presents its most horrible phase. The victim's pulse rates to 160, a heart beat which is deemed almost impossible by physicians of experience. The respiration counts 58. These organic disturbances, together with a temperature of 107 and 108, do not cause instant death, but the high fever generated soon burns out the patient. The disease always attacks persons who have suffered from intermittent malarial fever.

ILLINOIS KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Opening of the Forty-Seventh Annual Conclave at Pearl's Hall, a Grand Parade.

Pearl, Ill., Sept. 2.—The forty-seventh annual convocation of the grand commander Knights Templar of the state of Illinois opened at Pearl's hall Tuesday with 2,000 Knights present. The parade in the morning was a magnificent pageant in which 1,500 marchers and 31 bands took part. The column was reviewed by Grand Commander Purinton and his staff. Following the parade, the grand convocation was opened in full state in the Masonic temple. The election of officers will take place Wednesday and Alonzo S. Willard, of Bellevue, Ill., has been elected grand commander. There was a military ball in the coliseum Tuesday night to which 2,000 invitations have been issued.

A LAMENTABLE MISTAKE.

A Michigan Farmer's Daughter Shot and Killed by Her Father Who Was Hunting Crows.

Orengo, Mich., Sept. 2.—Duncan Swan accidentally shot and killed his daughter Mary Monday. Swan had been troubled with crows in his corn Monday he saw the stalks moving and thinking crows were in the patch again, discharged his shotgun at the moving corn. To his horror, his daughter screamed and he found that he had shot her in the breast. She was suffering from a heart ailment, her father did not know it. Swan is nearly crazed.

"BEST SPORT IN THE WORLD"

American People to Show their Appreciation of Sir Thomas.

A Presentation to Sir Thomas Lipton to be National in Character—Universal in Sentiment.

New York, Sept. 1.—The initial step toward the presentation to Sir Thomas Lipton of a memento from the American people probably in the form of a silver service, was taken, Monday, when the following resolution was adopted at a meeting held at the Waldorf hotel:

"The undersigned committee, named to arrange a memento for Sir Thomas Lipton, feel assured that they represent a universal sentiment of appreciation among all classes of Americans who love sport and who are sportsmen, and, acting upon this assurance, they suggest to the general public a popular subscription to meet the end in view. The Western and Northern New York has consented to receive subscriptions. It is desired that these be national in character, since there is no state or section where the pluck, liberality and good temper of our late antagonist, ever our friend and now our guest, have not won all hearts."

The following committee was appointed: Gen. Joseph Wheeler, chairman; Henry Watterston, Lowellville; Patrick Collins, mayor of Boston; Thomas F. Walsh, Washington, D. C.; George T. Wilson, New York; Robert T. Ford, New York; Valentin Snyder, New York; Lindsay Russell, New York; Senator Kearns, Utah; Timothy D. Woodruff, New York.

English undertakings to get work for himself and boys in the neighborhood to support his family. One of the children was sick, being kept in bed.

PREVENTED THEM GETTING WORK.

Prestwood tried to prevent the old man from getting work, and proceeded to have him and the boys arrested by making affidavits before Noah Preston, his son, charging the Englishes with burning some of his turpentine barrels.

This charge, it was admitted on the stand, was absolutely groundless, but the excuse was given that he had English arrested because the old man refused to put out the fire and had gone when requested to do so.

Goodman arrested the Englishes, carried them before Noah Preston, a justice, and, it is alleged, they were informed that the case was not buildable, and that they would have to go to jail.

The justice did not place any case in the dock against the family, and warrants were not returned in any court by the justice.

When the Englishes were being carried to jail they decided to accept the terms of the justice, and were released until 1905, in order to pay the damage done to the turpentine boxes, which was an amount agreed upon to be paid for the labor of English and his boys.

The evidence showed that it was impossible for the family to live on the allowance made, and Preston ceased to furnish rations when one of the boys refused to get additional work in the neighborhood.

An appearance of the victims was startling. The boys did not know their faces and could not read or write. They were sallow-faced and hollow-eyed and their lips were white, showing that they did not receive sufficient sustenance. Their father, bent with age, unbacked and nearly blind, was a picture of destitution and despair.

WRECK ON ERIE RAILROAD.

Collision Near Turner, N. Y., in Which One Man Was Killed and Several Injured.

Middletown, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Two trains on the Erie railroad collided Tuesday morning near Turner, N. Y., a steam locomotive and a passenger train, known man, injuring a number of passengers. E. F. Hallenfield, of New York, had an arm cut off.

The injuries to the others consisted mainly of cuts and bruises.

ASKING FOR COSTS THREE LIVES.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 31.—Three people were drowned in White Bear lake Sunday night, by the overturning of a row boat. The party had been spending the day at the lake, and early in the evening entered a row boat. A short distance from the dock they began cutting up, and attempted to knock off each other's hats. In the mixup the boat was overturned and all of the party were drowned before aid could reach them.

PRICE OF COAL ADVANCED.

Topela, Kas., Aug. 31.—At a meeting of the Osage county coal operators held here Sunday, the price of coal for the winter season was advanced from $2.85 to $3.10 per ton at the mines. This is the highest price ever charged for this coal. One of the operators said that the advance is the result of increased cost of labor.

FAMILY FORCED INTO SERVITUDE

Robert English, an Aged White Man and His Family of Ten Children Practically Slaves.

THEY WERE JUGGLED INTO SIGNING AWAY THEIR LIBERTY.

A Wealthy Alabama Turpentine Operator, His Son, a Merchant and Justice of the Peace and a Half-Breed to Answer in the United States Court.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 1.—Marion Prestwood, a wealthy turpentine operator of Troy; his son, Noah Preston, a merchant and justice of the peace, and Will Goodman, a bailiff, have been bound over to the United States court under bonds of $500 each on the charge of John Robert English, an aged white man, and his family of ten children, in involuntary servitude.

According to the testimony, the defendant, Prestwood, had a contract with English in 1892, by which he was to furnish English and his family with English, in consideration of the family's working 60 acres of shares.

When the crop was nearly made, Prestwood asked for further rations. The family was left in destitute circumstances, and Prestwood took possession of the crop.

English undertakings to get work for himself and boys in the neighborhood to support his family. One of the children was sick, being kept in bed.

SAYS EVERYONE DOES IT

Three Young St. Louis Physicians Are Under Arrest.

THEY ARE CHARGED WITH APPROPRIATING SUPPLIES FROM POORHOUSE DISPENSARY FOR PRIVATE USE.

St. Louis, Aug. 29.—Three young physicians are under arrest, charged with stealing medical supplies from the dispensary at the poorhouse. Alexander McNee and Emanuel T. Urban were employed there as assistant physicians. The third, G. F. Knapp, was in charge of the dispensary.

For some time Supt. H. E. Hart and Health Commissioner Simon have suspected that stealing was going on, but until Thursday no positive evidence could be obtained.

When Dr. Knapp was arrested in his office there was found a sachet filled with medicines, some bearing the initials of the poorhouse. Seeing that he was trapped, Knapp admitted his guilt. Dr. Urban also confessed that he had been in the conspiracy, and with the young men confessed that their actions were considered a crime. Everybody did the same, they said. Both Urban and Knapp were taken to the jail and the female hospital, and they stated that they thought they were entitled to use the city's drugs in their private practice.

Their method was a simple one. About once a week Dr. Knapp would take dinner with the two. He would take a sachet and when he left it would be full.

TANNER'S RECORD BROKEN.

A Handful (Only) Men Is Insane Who Has Not Tasted Food Since July 1.

Huntsville, Mo., Aug. 30.—On Monday, July 6, William Sorrell, an inmate of the county infirmary, ate dinner. Since that time he has refused all food, and has been kept in the infirmary, and has used that very sparingly. Fifty-four days, nearly eight weeks have elapsed, and he shows no disposition to partake of any nutriment, no matter how temptingly prepared.

It is one of the most remarkable records on record. The longest time a man has refused food is 26 days, with promise of still greater extension of the fast.

Of course, he is insane, but he is a case of the kind which transpires around him.

KILLED TRYING TO ESCAPE.

Prisoner Killed by Sheriff in Desperate Attempt to Get Away While Being Taken to Jail.

Salem, Ill., Aug. 31.—Shas Poe and Dolman Tritt, young men of Iowa, were lodged in the county jail Monday charged with burglary and larceny. A preliminary hearing was given them Saturday afternoon, at which both pleaded guilty. While being escorted from the courthouse back to the jail they made a desperate attempt to escape. In the confusion, Poe fired a shot, and was killed by Sheriff Smith and started to run. The sheriff continued him to jail, and upon retreat, opened fire on the fugitive. At the fifth shot Poe fell, fatally wounded. True also made a desperate struggle, but was easily overpowered by Deputy Simcox.

OLDEST MAN IN ILLINOIS.

Death of Francis Anthony, the Oldest Man in the State at Home in McLean County.

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 30.—Francis Anthony, the oldest man in Illinois, died Saturday morning after a two weeks' illness of heart failure. He was born May 8, 1830, in Ireland. He emigrated to Canada in 1820 and was a captain in the Canadian army during the rebellion. He was 78 years old when he had been a resident of Bloomington township and his vitality was such that he was able to do all the work of a younger man.

VEVUSUS REACTION, BUT DEFEAT.

Home, Aug. 31.—The eruption of Vesuvius continues in all its grandeur, but without apparent danger to the neighboring population. Thousands of people remain up all night long to witness the spectacle. The lava emitted is of an unusually light form, and, consequently, has covered a larger area than previous eruptions, adding much to the beauty of the scene.

BROKE A WORLD'S RECORD.

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 1.—Jacob Grubler, of the Sacramento Helvetic Shooting club, has broken the world's record at 200 yards, German 25-line proof, by shooting a possible 500. The record, heretofore held by Dr. Rogers, of San Francisco, was 461 out of 500.

ROBERT C. BLACKWELL DIED.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 1.—Robert C. Blackwell, supervising mechanical engineer of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, died suddenly last night, at his home in Albany. He was 62 years old and had been a part of the development of many railroad inventions and apparatus.

SECRETARY NUN STARTS WEST.

Orator Day, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Secretary Shaw, after having been in the city for some time, left for the west last night, Saturday, on an extended trip through the middle west. He will deliver one or three addresses while on his journey.

GRANFLOON BOAT FROM ALASKA.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 30.—Gen. Funnell arrived here Sunday, after having been on an inspection of the forts of Alaska Friday. While in the north he also observed the conditions of the Alaskan Indians.

CALEB POWERS IS DECLARED GUILTY

The Jury at Georgetown, Ky., Returns Its Verdict, Assessing the Death Penalty.

THIS WAS HIS THIRD TRIAL AND HE WILL AGAIN APPEAR.

The Charge Against Him Was Complicity in the Murder of William Goebel, Who Had Been Declared Guilty of the Crime by the Jury at Louisville.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 30.—The jury in the case of ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers, charged with complicity in a conspiracy to murder William Goebel, in January, 1900, found the defendant guilty and imposed the death sentence.

Powers was sentenced to imprisonment for life in his former trial, but on his motion that he secured the new trial. The verdict caused great excitement among the friends of other defendants in these cases.

HIS THIRD CONVICTION.

The third trial of the defendant closed shortly before noon. Several hundred people crowded the courtroom when the verdict was read, and intense silence prevailed. The jury was polled and each man declared the verdict of guilt to be his finding. Powers sat unmoved while his attorneys asked for time to make a motion for a new trial. Arthur Goebel broke down from the strain on hearing of the verdict, and he was taken to the hospital.

Arthur Goebel, the brother of the victim, is a prominent merchant at Cincinnati, and has spent his time and fortune for over three years in the prosecution of those accused of being in a conspiracy to kill his brother. Powers has been convicted twice before, this being the third trial in which the jury brought in a verdict of guilty against him. On his previous trial he escaped with a sentence of life imprisonment. All three trials were held at Georgetown, and in each of them he had the assistance of the most able lawyers who could be procured.

Subscription lists were circulated by interested friends and a sum of money was secured to defray the cost of his repeated trials and the investigating of the circumstances which brought about the killing of Goebel in the interest of the defense. The last trial was distinguished by the fact that Powers addressed the jury in his own behalf, and in a long review of the case showed himself to be a very competent attorney, while his eloquence in pleading for his life was a thing of beauty. Powers has already been three years in prison on the sentence of the previous court.

TAILORED 'SIMPLY HORRIFIED.'

Asked For a Statement in Relation to the Conviction of Powers—Says Powers is Victim of Politics.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 31.—When W. S. Taylor was asked, Sunday night, for a statement in relation to the conviction of Caleb Powers at Georgetown, he said there was but one word to say in the matter. "It is simply a horror," he said, "simply horrified. It is a monstrous crime. But it is no more than was to have been expected."

Later Mr. Taylor made the following statement: "When it is remembered that Caleb Powers has been convicted for political purposes, and to cover and obscure the monstrous crime of robbing him of his life by hundreds of thousands of dollars perjury fraud and by inducing and then by bringing with immunity and money cringing creatures to swear in his name in three bipartisan circles, before three partisan juries deliberately selected to convict, no one is surprised. His conviction is the most diabolical political crime of the age. The verdict does not in fact, nor in the minds of just men anywhere, make him any more guilty than did the conviction and execution of Robert Emmet make him guilty, of Caleb Powers in an innocent man."

THE TORONTO EXPOSITION

The Victorian Jubilee Presents and the Coldstream Guards Band the Main Attractions.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 30.—Toronto's annual exposition was opened Saturday. The late Queen Victoria's jubilee presents, valued at over $3,000,000, and the Coldstream Guards band of England, are to be the main attractions. The presents will afterward be shown at the St. Louis world's fair.

NAD STEER CAME FRODO.

Racine, Wis., Aug. 31.—In a panic at the first annual picnic of the Racine, held at Sundae Park, Sunday, four persons were severely injured by a mad steer which broke loose and ran through a crowd of 10,000 people. A hundred or more persons were knocked down by the steer and three women fell into the water.

CRIMINALS RELEASED ON BOND.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 31.—James Christie, who has been serving a three months' sentence in the county jail for selling his vote, was released on bond Saturday, to await the action of the supreme court in October. This is the second case in which Christie has actually acted the course of 50 other similar cases.

ST. LOUIS POLICE SHAKEUP.

Wholesale degradation of recruits, degradation of patrolmen and other shenanigans.

St. Louis, Sept. 2.—The board of police commissioners, at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, made public the changes in the police department, which will be effective immediately.

Twenty-five patrolmen have been reduced to the rank of patrolmen, and two sergeants have been dropped from the rolls.

Three detectives are reduced to the rank of patrolmen.

Thirty-eight patrolmen have been dropped from the rolls, and the remaining patrolmen reduced to the places of turnkeys who were not reappointed.

SEELY SHAW DELIGHTED.

Declares the World's Fair Picture a Gem—The Finest Thing He Has Ever Seen.

St. Louis, Sept. 2.—Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, after being conducted to the Top of Art Hill, in the World's Fair grounds, where he could get a comprehensive view of what had been accomplished, said to the officials accompanying him: "Gentlemen, I have seen the world's fair picture, and I have never seen the like of this picture in my life."

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

Far Economy's Sake.

An ice-cream wagon—a dear sweet thing—
Every night precisely at eight,
Comes down the street with a tinging,
Just as my beau appears at the gate.

Then I scream "Ice-cream!" and he,
Sweet thing, buys a whole lot;
But now there's no more cream for me—
He calls at 8:30 o'clock.

W. J. B.

Mr. T. M. Heggy, the foreman at Mt. Vernon, Ill., was at Howell Sunday.

The new force of inspectors and car repairers at Guthrie, which became effective on the first of the month, is composed of the following men: Dan Coy, of Howell, chief inspector; Sol Shaw, of Earlinton, assistant to Mr. Coy during the day. At night Mr. J. D. Anderson, who has been inspector at that point since the death of Mr. Scott Brady, will take the lead, with Mr. W. A. Craiz, of Earlinton, as his assistant.

The firemen who are candidates for promotion to engineer will be sent to Russellville, Ky., in a few days, where they will, under the instructions of Mr. Pat Ryan, become acquainted with the action of an engine running in a crippled condition, and will be taught how to overcome any trouble that is likely to arise out on the road. Mr. Ryan has an old engine for this purpose, which is disconnected and put together by the students. After Mr. Ryan gets through with them they are then prepared to appear before the Board of Mechanical Examiners, composed of Messrs. Thomas Walsh, of Howell; R. Moran, of Nashville; J. J. Monahan, of Paris, and Mr. Ryan.

E. St. Louis yard engines experienced considerable trouble last week on account of the bad condition of the Mississippi water. Rather, the railroads owning the switch engines experienced the trouble. It seems there was something wrong with the water works, so that the water was thickened with mud. On the night of the 24th every switch engine at work began to foam so badly that it was a difficult matter to keep water in the boilers.

Mr. Walsh is putting out another class of firemen to meet any emergency this winter and next summer during the World's Fair business. Of course, a stitch in time still saves nine.

Several trains were considerably delayed out of E. St. Louis on the morning of the 26th of August on account of engine 1063 having been run into the turntable pit at that point at midnight by the hostler. The work of getting the engine out lasted about five hours.

Mr. A. J. Bruning, foreman painter at Howell, will attend the Master Painters' Convention to be held at Chicago Sept. 15th.

Fireman Emil Spiels was breaking up coal on train 51 at Slaughters August 21st, when a piece fell in his left eye, causing a severe pain. He however fired the engine to Nashville, where he was obliged to lay off for a few days on account of the injury.

Robt. Boyd, the stationary engineer of the machine shops at Howell, was on the sick list last week.

Superintendent John W. Logsdon was in Louisville last week on business.

Fireman F. M. Hampton was struck in the eye on the 20th of last month by lubricator glass on engine 961 bursting.

Willis Carnahan, blacksmith at Earlinton, is visiting relatives at Covington, Ky., for a month.

Mrs. Pat Smith, of Howell is visiting with relatives at Summertown, Tenn., in the hope of recovering her health, which has been bad for some time. Pat Smith, her husband, is a carpenter at Howell.

Mrs. Sol Shaw, of Earlinton, is visiting with her parents at Glasgow, Ky., until her husband, who is day inspector at Guthrie, can locate them a new home.

S. R. Hackney, the Hopkinsville accommodation engineer, who has been at Knoxville, Tenn., for the past few weeks for his health, writes that if he continues to improve as he has been doing he will be able to return by the 15th of the month.

Traveling Engineer Dennis E. Kelly was on the division the first of the week.

J. W. Danbert, car wheel inspector for the L. & N., is at Mt. Vernon, Ill., this week receiving a lot of cars the Mt. Vernon Car Manufacturing Company is turning out for the Mexican International Railroad.

A train of light repair box cars taken from the Howell shops Tuesday on account of the congested condition there, to the shops at Paris, Tenn.

F. C. Baugh, of Montgomery, Ala., is the guest of his father, W. C. Baugh, express agent at Mt. Vernon, Ill., this week.

William Murray, of Louisville, who is the agent for the New York Lubricating Oil Co., which has recently been given contract to furnish the L. & N. system with their lubrication oils, was over the divisions the first of the week.

JUDICIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION HELD BY REPUBLICANS.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 1.—The Republicans of the Sixth Judicial District met in a delegate convention at the court house this afternoon and nominated candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney. W. Scott Morrison, of this city, was nominated for Circuit Judge and M. L. Heaverly, of Hartford, received the nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney. Both nominations were cut and dried by the local machine.

J. R. Higdon, of Hawesville, was made chairman of the convention, P. B. McEuen, of McLean county, was elected secretary. In thanking the convention for the honor of the chairmanship, Mr. Higdon said: "Let us stand together. As Franklin said, let us hang together, for if we do not we may hang separately."

Not more than a hundred Republicans were in attendance at the convention. Very little enthusiasm was manifested. The log cabin was chosen as the device to go on the ballots.

In America there are 417 institutions devoted to the higher education, and of these 140 are universities.

In Western Canada Chinese labor is scarcely to be had for coal mines, as the yellow man is afraid of evil spirits.

Emergency Medicine.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it always the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery.

FRENCH LICK AND WEST BADEN SPRINGS.

In the highlands of Indiana—a two hour ride from Louisville there flow wonderful healing waters, that you'd spend hundreds of dollars to enjoy if they were in Europe.

A recent visitor from Philadelphia, who formerly went to Carlsbad every year, said: "I do not see why anyone goes to Europe for medicinal waters. The water is as beneficial, and the scenery and surrounding country, the air and the opportunities for recreation are better; the hotels and all accommodations are much finer at French Lick-West Baden Springs"—and this gentleman is a native of Switzerland.

The splendidly wooded hills with the cool, invigorating air of these highlands where one can enjoy ramblings in the depths of the forest, or rides and drives among the numerous bridle paths and roadways, afford pleasure for those who desire rest and quiet; while at the splendid cabins one can have all the entertainment and social pleasures possible at the most fashionable resorts.

MINING NOTES.

Sam Parks, walking delegate of the Honesmiths and Bridge men's Union, is in Sing Sing prison, New York, sentenced for two and one-half years for blackmail. Parks has called many strikes in New York, sometimes agreeing to call them off for a sum of money. Even after being indicted, his union upheld him and voted him into the highest office in the order. Now that he has been proved a criminal, with several more indictments against him, it remains to be seen if the workmen he has swindled and thrown out of work so long will support him. Read what a wife of one of the idle mechanics says:

Assistant District Attorney Rand got a letter yesterday from a woman who signed herself "Mrs. Anderson, Fifty-ninth street, Brooklyn." In part it said:

"Permit me to thank you for your able and conscientious conducting of the trial of that man Sam Parks, so called delegate of several unions. I wonder if for a minute some of those men—they ought to be called brutes—ever realize the extent of such a man's misdeeds when they place him in power over working men and let him dictate when and where they shall work."

"Did it occur to you that he has actually been placed in power to starve workmen's families as he will, as well as cause untold misery and suffering to women and children, through his base grasping for money—to get it without working for it? He has at this day thousands of women and children, families of skilled mechanics, literally starving and suffering as much as though they lived in the coal regions last winter. For over three months some of these workmen have been told to leave their families and all must live. How, in God's name, are we to get food when the men are forced into idleness?"

"Myself, as well as my poor little dependent grandchildren, are but few of the many who have suffered through him. If all the workmen's families would come and tell their tales of want and suffering, your heart would bleed with pity, and you would make greater effort to send Sam Parks and more of his stamp to State's prison."

The Mine Inspector's report shows that the mines of Hopkins county worked 250 days in 1902, Christian county worked 247 days and Webster 240 days, Muhlenberg county 154 days, Union county 150 days and Ohio county 183 days. In other words the non union mines get over 100 days more work than the union mines in the western coal fields of Kentucky.

It is expensive to be a member of district 23, U. M. W. of A., which now collects from each member $1.45 per month, besides the regular dues and national levy of 10 cents per month. Sec. Treas. Baker reports having received this district tax from local 602 for week ending August 15, $2.28, while local 678 contributes $2.03, local 609 gives $1.60 and local 681 gives $1.00. The state mine inspector reports 2,823 employees in Union, Muhlenberg, Ohio and Henderson counties members of district No. 23. This means an assessment of $4,093 per month, or an assessment of $49,100 per year for WHAT? Taking the secretary-treasurer's own report for the three months ending June 30 we find that each dollar expended shows that two cents went for aid (that is for relief of widows and children), while the officers of district 23 drew 86 cents of the dollar, while 604 cents went to lawyers and court costs and it took the balance, one and a half cents, to audit ex-Treas. Campbell's books to find out what Campbell and Wood did with the $235,000 spent during the last three years, none of which was turned over to the ex-treasurer's successor's cash box. It is hard to disturb that two cents for aid, it is so small, but the friends of the widow Ella Givens claim that Board Member Plackman, who received $47.50 for her burial outfit, never paid out any of it for that purpose, and the aid fund is thereby reduced to less than one and a fourth cents out of the 100 cents spent.

Local No. 1152, of Basket Station, is in the dumps. George Byrd, the secretary, has been sued for $512.14, the amount of dues and assessments collected from the members. Neither George nor the money is to be found, and the enthusiastic members will have to make good this amount.

Chas. Eloff, who was injured last week, is improving nicely.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is to be called to account in the courts for his advocacy of the employment by trades unions of the boycott, which has been adjudicated as illegal. The American Anti-Boycott Association, which is organized to protect manufacturers discriminated against by labor unions, has taken up the matter and is determined that President Gompers shall suffer for his lawlessness. The attention of the officers of the association has been called to a letter written by President Gompers in which he threatened to order a boycott of the products of the Purington Paving Brick Company of Chicago.—Evansville Economist.

The site of the several barges of coal recently sunk in the Ohio, a short distance below Uniontown, and abandoned, is still a busy place. The work of getting out the coal, on the part of numerous workmen, is still in progress, and although hundreds of bushels have been hauled away, little impression has been made on the supply. The coal is sold to consumers for 10 cents per bushel delivered, and this price, for the quality of coal, is considered very reasonable. Quite a number are having their coal houses filled at these figures.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.
